WALMER TOWN COUNCIL, JUBILEE PARTY ON THE GREEN

A giant party to celebrate Queen Elizabeth's seventy years on the throne is being held by Walmer Town Council on Walmer Green on the Saturday of the June bank holiday Jubilee weekend.

A series of events and exhibitions charting the changing world of food, fashion and transport during what has become the longest ever reign of a British Monarch will welcome visitors of all ages.

The highlight of the day will be the inaugural Best of Kent food, beer and wine festival which will showcase and celebrate some of the counties finest food and drink. Kent has over 100 craft breweries, many high-quality local vineyards and countless specialist food producers.

The highlight of the evening and the climax of the day will be a special Jubilee Concert featuring the Queen's favourite music.

"Her Majesty has been a Queen for all the people during her reign and her taste in music reflects that," explained Cllr Marguerite Beard-Gould who is organising the event on behalf of Walmer Town Council.

"We were fascinated to discover that her personal music favourites range from George Formby Leaning on a Lamp Post to Annie Get Your Gun, Vera Lynn and Scottish bagpipes - all of which we intend – with the help of the Deal Music and Arts to provide on the night.

If you would like to be involved in this event – whether a Craft Brewer, Kent Vineyard, Kent food producer, singer or musician you can contact Walmer Town Council:
